I make different kinds of appointments depending on what I need. I make doctor's appointments and dentist's appointments when I am sick or need a check-up. If there's something wrong with my health, I always go see a doctor right away. On the other hand, I make regular appointments with my stylist because I like getting my hair done. I often get a perm and change the color of my hair because I feel more confident when I get a new look. Although some places offer walk-in services, I prefer making appointments ahead of time to avoid a long wait. That's it. Overall, I make different kinds of appointments depending on what I need.

I remember when I made an appointment with a dentist to get my teeth cleaned. I thought I had been taking great care of my teeth. Unexpectedly, when my dentist looked at my teeth, he told me that I had a small cavity in a wisdom tooth. Knowing that it would hurt, I did not want to get my wisdom tooth pulled. However, since I had a cavity, my dentist recommended getting it removed. So, I ended up getting my wisdom tooth removed, and I couldn't eat regular meals for a few days. Well, that's how it is. That was the last appointment I made.

The most memorable incident I've had is when I made an appointment with my stylist. I needed to get my hair done first thing in the morning because I had to get my graduation picture taken that day. However, when I arrived at the salon, all the doors were locked, and the lights were turned off. I decided to wait for my stylist. But, she did not show up for 15 minutes, so I decided to give her a call. When I called her, she told me that she had a car accident and broke her arm. Since I have always gotten my hair done by her, I decided to postpone taking my graduation picture until she was recovered.

Well, that's definitely the most memorable incident I've ever had at the salon.
